Word Pairs

Parent Directions: Have your child read each sentence and write the correct form of the word on the blank.

1. The newspaper editorial was a powerful (noun form of denounce) of the new law.

   ________________________

2. You may need to (verb form of preconception) your plan for your report, if you want it to turn out well.

   ________________________

3. Poor Gina got (noun form of detain) again for not turning in her homework.

   ________________________

4. The justice of the peace was pleased to (verb form of pronunciation) the couple husband and wife.

   ________________________

5. Ms. Chu warned Mr. Jones not to (verb form of deception) her.

   ________________________

6. My mother and father recently (past tense verb form of renunciation) housecleaning.

   ________________________

7. It was the (noun form of perceive) of everyone in the group that they were too tired to continue the hike.

   ________________________

Take-Home Activity (BLM 8)

Word Study & Vocabulary 4: Unit 22: Predictable spelling changes ceiv/cep, tain/ten, nounce/nunc

©2010 Benchmark Education Company, LLC