Word Hunt

Parent Directions: Have your child read the paragraph below and find words with long o patterns. On the lines below have your child write all of the words with long o patterns that he or she finds. Then have your child circle the long o patterns and underline the accented syllables.

Did you notice that I’m the owner of a new robot?
I was trying to use the remote so that it would obey me and lower its arms. But I think maybe it’s broken.

1. __________________
2. __________________
3. __________________
4. __________________
5. __________________
6. __________________
7. __________________