Write a Sentence

Parent Directions: Have your child write a sentence for each word in the word bank. Then have them circle the -er, -ar, or -or pattern in the unaccented final syllable of the word.

Word Bank

dollar     color     mother     solar     mirror     silver

1. ______________________________________________________________________

2. ______________________________________________________________________

3. ______________________________________________________________________

4. ______________________________________________________________________

5. ______________________________________________________________________

6. ______________________________________________________________________

Take-Home Activity (BLM 6)

Word Study & Vocabulary 1: Unit 22: Unaccented final syllables -er, -ar, -or ©2010 Benchmark Education Company, LLC