Prefixes ex-, non-, in-ex- means “out” or “away from”

Our teacher said she would exclude that question from our quiz scores.

non- means “not”

That song seems to play nonstop on the radio.

in- means “not,” “in,” or “into”

We decided to move the party to an indoor location once the rain began. (“into”)

The directions to the shopping mall were incorrect. (“not”)